Foreign Affairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Mazatlán advices to January 7 have been received. Great discontent prevails against Juárez's government, and an open rebellion is soon anticipated.

General Corona departed for Acapulco on January 2, en route for the city of Mexico, on leave of absence. It is asserted that his presence has only prevented an open rupture. The leader of the present contemplated pronouncement is yet unknown, although the name of one, who was in communication in connection with his well-known aspirations for the Republic of the Occident, from Tepic to the Rio Colorado, including Sonora, Chihuahua, Durango, Sinaloa, Lower California, and a portion of Jalisco, and claiming protection from the United States.

General Martínez's name is also mentioned in the same connection. He was expected to arrive in the country by the next steamer.

Advices were received at Mazatlán on January 6, reporting the return of Gonzales Ortega, to enforce his claim to the presidency. Negrete, Quiroga, Arguedo, and Camarillo are his up-ordered, the death of his blind Patron, it is supposed, has caused Ortega to take this step.

The General Government is exhibiting tardiness to bring Ortega to trial.

General Endrota Parra has been appointed military commandant of Sinaloa during the absence of Corona.

All persons who aided Martínez's revolution are ordered to present themselves before the District Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The Commissioners appointed by Governor Rabi to report upon the losses of the Mexican War, and to propose a reduction, amounting to $15,000, which have been forwarded to the City of Mexico.

There is great dissatisfaction among the clergy in regard to the new militia law, which exempts no males between the ages of twenty and fifty. Several arrests have been made and fines exacted from clergymen. The Bishop of Leon was brought before the courts because of his protesting against the occupancy of the church property by the State authorities for school purposes.

The Legislature of Jalisco has authorized the Government of the State to sell all buildings belonging to the clergy, even the office of instruction and benevolent purposes. The Apache Indians are committing horrid outrages in Sonora, and the National Guard has been called out to fight them.

Everything is paralyzed in Lower California, and the miles are only worked sufficiently to retain the titles.

HAVANA, Jan. 15.—The journals of this city continue to report that Vain media has taken Bayamo, but the fact is still doubtful. Even if he had reached the town, it is not probable that he would enter it. The Spanish and Cuban accounts concur in stating that the cholera is raging there.

Senor Ramírez, Ovo, and Tamayo left this city to-day as a committee to consult with the insurgent chiefs, and endeavor to bring about a compromise. Various meetings to consider the question of peace have been held at the residences of prominent Cubans, but they have had no definite result.

The Cuban Revolutionary Junta in this city has had several secret meetings, at which they have resolved to remain quiet and accept nothing from Dulce, and to make no demonstrations until they have heard fully from Cedeño as to the wishes of the revolutionists in arms.

HAVANA, Jan. 15.—An original copy of the so-called Emancipation Proclamation issued by the revolutionary General Cedeño has been received here. It does not, as reported, abolish slavery at once, but counsels the owners to give the slaves their freedom, and leave the ultimate decision to the people, who at their pleasure may decide upon immediate emancipation, coupled with indemnification of those owners who are favorable to the revolutionary cause, and yet are willing to pay a heavy price for it.

Geo. G. Peacock, return inspector of this division, is examining the book from preceding witness, and that in consequence they got behind in counting the votes, and did not catch up until half-past two in the afternoon; and also as to the officers inside voicing to voters without the administering of an oath to either themselves or the voter; more than three-fourths of the voters of that division are foreigners, and during the day did not see nor hear of a naturalization paper nor tax receipt being shown.

Mr. Dryburgh testified that he was the Republican inspector of this division and had the window book; that he could not return it to Peacock (Mr. Fay) now, as it had been given to him, "You can't get along fast enough; give it to me," and kept it for the best part of the first hour, when a voter came and called out his name. Fay would say "all right," and the ticket would be taken; I had no chance to see if a voter's name was on the book; the judge insisted three times that I should wear the men I objected to who came to vote; three were sworn down the day, and the rest, when challenged, were vouchsed for by the Democratic officers inside, who would say, "We have already been sworn, and there is no necessity in swearing us again"; when got the book from my eye, I made excuse, and when a voter came in, a voter's name was not on the book; I would tell the officers so, who would vouch for him, and the name of the voucher would be placed on the book; three outside vouchers were sworn; I administered the oath to them; the book was taken from me because I would not let them vote so fast that I could not find the names.

Cross-examined.—I vote in the Tent ward; am clerk in the Recorder of Deeds' office.

David Dryburgh testified that he was the Republican inspector of this division and had the window book; that he could not return it to Peacock (Mr. Fay) now, as it had been given to him, "You can't get along fast enough; give it to me," and kept it for the best part of the first hour, when a voter came and called out his name. Cross-examined.—Had the book after the first hour; do not remember any voter being challenged for whom some one did not vouch; there are eight names and vouchers on the book not in the handwriting of myself nor my clerk; do not know who wrote them.

Geo. G. Peacock, return inspector of this division, is examining the book from preceding witness, and that in consequence they got behind in counting the votes, and did not catch up until half-past two in the afternoon; and also as to the officers inside voicing to voters without the administering of an oath to either themselves or the voter; more than three-fourths of the voters of that division are foreigners, and during the day did not see nor hear of a naturalization paper nor tax receipt being shown.

Mr. Dryburgh was recalled, and testified that several tax receipts were shown, but that no naturalization papers were shown by voters; that the Alceda forces lost 6000 men killed and wounded in the battle of December 5. General Attilio was mortally wounded in this fight. General McNaughton, the American Minister, was in the Paraguayan camp. A good understanding exists between Presidents Lopez and the American Minister.

MARIBA, Jan. 15.—The elections for members of the Constituent Cortes have commenced.

The Reactionists have attempted to create disturbances at the polling places, but these proved abortive. With these exceptions, good order has been maintained.

The Provisional Government has obtained proofs of the existence of a conspiracy, in which Generals Pezuela, Calone, and Manuel Gassett are implicated. The persons named are accused of having plotted to assassinate the King.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—The statement made by the Vienna journal that Bismarck had declared that Von Bismarck must be removed from the seat of the Austrian Cabinet, is pronounced to be without any foundation in fact.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Madrid journals are hostile to the Duke of Asturias as a candidate for the throne of Spain. The chances of the Duke of Monpensier seem, at present, to be increasing. The Gaulois of Paris, thinks, however, that the former is the most available candidate, and is most likely to succeed, if Spain declares in favor of a monarchy.

PALMA DE MAJORCA, Jan. 15.—The Conference on the Eastern question made no headway. It is generally believed this session will be fruitless. It has received no creditable authority that Mezo Bangabe, the Greek Minister, has been instructed to announce that Greece is resolved to reject the decision of the Conference if certain demands in the Turkish ultimatum are supported by that body. All the indications are that Greece is bent on war. As Athens despatch says that King George is preparing to retire to Nauplia.

PALMA DE MAJORCA, Jan. 15.—The public dispatches report that the Conference on the Eastern question held a harmonious session to day, and agreed unanimously on a conciliatory resolution. Bangabe was not in attendance, and his continued absence is regarded as a refusal by Greece to recognize the Conference.

The Paris Patrie published a translation of a letter of Mr. Gladstone to C. Edwards Lester, of New York, and proposed sending the same to England in the name of America, and as likely to produce no little irritation of feeling against the Premier among his own countrymen.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The Constitutionnel of the city predicts that Greece will submit to the voice of the conference.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—All the great powers except Russia have garrisoned in a demand upon Greece that, for the preservation of peace, she shall withdraw her formal objections to the Conference as at present constituted. The powers have, on this occasion, however, not concurred in hope that Russia will also concur.

Cincinnati will send five lady delegates to the Equal Suffrage Convention to assemble at Washington.

The preliminary examination of prisoners captured on the Georgian commenced at Savannah yesterday.

—Kate Rupe, aged seventeen, was fatally burned at Harrisburg yesterday, by the upsetting of a kerosene lamp.

The allies captured about 3000 prisoners of war. Lopez himself, with barely 200 followers, made his escape. This important victory opened the way to Asuncion, the Paraguayan capital, to which place the Brazilian iron-clads had gone.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—A detachment from Hong Kong, just arrived, states that a strong rebel force had captured the city of Hakodate in Japan.

The regular army had made a vigorous assault on the Paraguayan stronghold of Viloca, and after a desperate battle succeeded in carrying it.

Lopez's army was utterly routed and destroyed. The allies captured about 3000 prisoners of war. Lopez himself, with barely 200 followers, made his escape. This important victory opened the way to Asuncion, the Paraguayan capital, to which place the Brazilian iron-clads had gone.

—Dr. Simmonds, formerly of Cincinnati, was married at Water Valley, Mass., by Daniel Markham, on Monday. The assassin escaped.
